HALLOWEEN FUN!

What a great day we all had on our first day back, with lots of Halloween fun throughout the whole of the school. Early Years had lots of ghoulish craft activities, whilst KS1 and KS2 were able to enjoy their first full school disco in almost three years. Thanks to the staff, especially Miss Ackroyd and Mrs Filby, for organising refreshments and for giving their time to ensure the activities went well.

WE WILL REMEMBER THEM

This week children across the school have had assemblies to understand remembrance and its significance.

Thank you for sending your children in with donations for the Royal British Legion – we sold out of everything and have two very heavy donation boxes to return to them.

The whole school observed an immaculate 2-minute silence at 11 O'Clock today.

On Sunday, some of our children will be attending the war memorial at Bradshaw.

They will be laying this fantastic wreath, which has been made by Daisy in Year 4.
